10.4 CERTIFICATE OF OCCUPANCY- After 5/1/99, all new residential and commercial structures require a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Town of Tilton before use... In order to secure a certificate of occupancy a structure must be found to be in compliance with all applicable requirements of this Zoning Ordinance approved site plans, stipulations of local Land Use Boards and applicable State laws and regulations. All structures must be completed as approved in applicable building permits. No new structures will be used or occupied without obtaining a certificate of occupancy. Failure to obtain a certificate of occupancy will constitute a violation of the Zoning Ordinance.

Any new business moving into existing commercial structure shall require a certificate of occupancy. All new businesses coming into town will be required to register with the Land Use Office in the Town of Tilton. Existing businesses only need to fill out form and return to Land Use Office at Tilton Town Hall

The certificate of occupancy requires an inspection from the Tilton-Northfield Fire Department and the Town of Tilton's Building Inspector. Please call the following numbers to setup an appointment to have the inspections done. Fire Department 603-286-4781 and Building Inspector 603-286-4521 ext 106.
